Things I've Learned:

- how important the work, the work, the work is @ The University of Alabama's portfolio program: Minerva
- that I'm good with words
- friends come and go, but imitation Mexican food will always be there for me
- Football! Winning!

Things I've Done:

- wrote about wieners
- screwed around in illustrator making graphics FTK (#artdirection?)
- scooped ice cream/eventually promoted to telling people how to scoop ice cream
- had drinks spilled on me while balancing large amounts of glassware, often intoxicated (excelled in this field)
- swept popcorn, watched movies for free

Things I can do:

- write (clearly), spell (debatable), creative cloud (decent), design (ya), communicate (that's a lie)

Let's enjoy imitation Mexican food together while we discuss you hiring me.
